

PRESS RELEASE

Toronto, Ontario, June 2020

EMRG Canada is pleased to announce a significant new addition to its membership ranks; the Lydale Group of restoration companies with established locations in Calgary, Edmonton, Regina, and Saskatoon. The EMRG shareholders have approved Lydale not only as a member, but also as a shareholder in EMRG.

“ Joining the EMRG Canada family feels like a natural, progressive step for Lydale. It allows us to collaborate with a network of industry leading professionals and capitalize on resource sharing systems while supporting an increase in coverage across Canada. It's a mutually beneficial relationship that supports the continuous build of a truly elite, Canadian network.

– Blaine Jackson, President of Lydale Group.

EMRG's new Program Director, Bing Wong, says “Lydale helps EMRG secure a leadership position in Western Canada and should indicate to the national marketplace our intention of building a network of only the very best independent operators across the country.”

ABOUT LYDALE GROUP

The Lydale Group is a full-service emergency mitigation and repair contractor who has been serving clients since 1978. With four locations between Alberta and Saskatchewan, they offer a diverse range of expertise and have the capacity to respond quickly, regardless of the size of loss. They pride themselves on being a big company with a small company approach, empowering their people to be agile and responsive to their clients. They do this using current industry approved equipment and standards, utilizing green technologies wherever possible.
